

“Celebrating Student Success”
Nontraditional Student Recognition Week
November 2-6, 2009

See spotlights of some campus activities happening during the week open to all students.

Monday - November 2, 2009

Library Reference Visit

Visit with Janet Spaeth, Librarian, about what the Library has to offer. Chester Fritz Library, 11am

Tuesday, November 3, 2009

A Speech Therapy Approach to Lyric Diction

Josephine Campbell Recital Hall, Hughes Fine Arts Center, 7pm

Global Visions Film Series The Boy in the Striped Pajamas

Department of Anthropology, open to the public, Memorial Union, Lecture Bowl, 7pm

Wednesday, November 4, 2009

Cookies, Coffee, & Conversation

Come join us at the Adult Re-Entry Center for featured guests conversation. Memorial Union 3rd Floor, 10a.m.-1p.m.

NightLife Open House

Visit with Adapt Peer Mentors and learn about NightLife. Basement of Memorial Union, 12noon -2p.m.

Effective Resume Writing

Career Services Workshop, Memorial Union Lecture Bowl, 12noon

Wellness Center Tour

Visit and tour of Wellness Center, 3p.m.

Thursday, November 5, 2009

Cultural Night - Swaziland

Memorial Union Loading Dock, 7p.m.

Nontraditional Student Resource Fair

Participants include Career Services, Counseling Center, Housing, Memorial Union, CSIL, Online Courses, Student Success Center, Student Health Promotions, Student Support Services, Wellness Center, and Veteran Services.

Memorial Union, Badlands Room, 11a.m. -12 p.m.

Nontraditional Student Recognition Program "Celebrating Student Success"

Adult Re-Entry/Student Success Center, Memorial Union, River Valley Room, 12:30-1p.m.

Friday, November 6, 2009

Roundtable discussion "Global Community"

Everybody is welcome to participate in the roundtable, hosted by the Department of Modern & Classical Languages & Literatures.

Memorial Union, Badlands Room, 1 to 2 p.m.

Resource Fair Participants:

Career Services, Counseling Center, Housing, CSIL, Online Courses, Student Success Center, Student Health Promotions, Student Support Services, Wellness Center, and Veterans Services.

See more on Adult Re-Entry Center website at www.ssc.und.edu/reentry/